THE NATIONAL PICKETS AT SEDALIA FIRED UPON-PRICE NOT ADVANCING-THE REB-BLA RETURNING HOME TO RECRUIT, ETC.

HAR RETURNING HOME TO RECRUIT, RTG.

Jefferson City, Nov. 27.—For the last two nights, our pickets at Sedalfa have been fired upon by the rebels returning from Gen. Price's army.

The report that Gen. Price is advancing from the Oasge river is not correct. The trath seems to be that a portion of his army, our posed of Missourians, is disbanding, as it their men are returning in small squads, for the purpose of Cothing themselves and preparing themselves for another campaign, and wherewer they can they commit all manner of outrages on Union men.

A gentleman, just from Lexington, reports that the city was full of returned rabels, and that there is a steady stream of atrivals.

The steamer Shoux City, with a large carge of goods for points on the river west of here, was refused permission to proceed on her trip today by the commandant of this point.

REPORTS FROM ST. LOUIS.

St. Louis, Mo., Nov. 27.—General Curtis has issued orders to the following effect: To check communication with the enemy; to prevent the conv. yance of contraband goods, and to avoid the recurrence of assaults upon steamboats.

recurrence of assaults upon steam avoid the recurrence of the Mississippi river, below this city, is assumed, and will be directed by, military and naval authorities of the United States. None but Government boats will hereafter be employed, but freight and passengers will be conveyed at current rates, as heretofore.

fore.
All boats entering these waters will report at the first military post, and stop, to proceed up der military orders, at the discretion of the military commander. Freight and haggage will be subjected to careful inspection. The military commander. Freight and baggage will be subjected to careful inspection. The oath will be administered to all employees and passengers, and the places of landing and departure will comform, as near as possible, to the custom of trade, but all commission and storage business must be transacted with openly knowed Union men.

General Halleck has issued very stringent orders respecting the seizure of private projectly, and the arcest of persons without sufficient cause.

RUNORED ADVANCE OF BRECKINRIDGE.

Louiseitle, Nov. 26.—Rumors are prevalent this afternoon, but generally discredited, that Gen. John C. Breckinrid.e., with a large force, is advancing from Green river, in the direction of Owensbore or Henderson.

A young man arrived at Camp Calhoun, Mc Lean county, Saturday last, and reported that J. C. Breckinridge is between Russelville and Greenville, with a regiment of cavalry and one of infantry. He intended crossing Green river at Rochester, and also at Ashbyburg. Another force was to advance on Rumsey, opposite Calhoun, and divert General Crittenden u-til the other two forces got in his rear.
